

CGHA REP TEAM OFFICIAL CODE OF CONDUCT

As a team official of the Clarington Girls Hockey Association, coach, trainer, or manager,

I will:

1. In my role as a team official for the Clarington Girls Hockey Association (CGHA), I am responsible for ensuring the safety, development, and satisfaction of the players.
2. I acknowledge that I hold a position of trust and I must carry out my responsibilities with the highest level of honesty and ethics.
3. I acknowledge that team officials, regardless of their position, are representatives of the CGHA and by extension the Board of Directors and are expected to uphold the highest standards. Even if I have differing opinions on the board's decisions, I will refrain from publicly criticizing them and will offer my support.
4. I commit to showing respect toward all those affiliated with my role.
5. I will reasonably schedule games and practices.
6. I will instruct the players to engage in fair play and exhibit respect towards the rules, officials, and their opponents.
7. I will provide all players with equal instruction, support, and equitable playing time.
8. I will refrain from ridiculing my players for making mistakes or performing poorly.
9. I will positively motivate players.
10. Ensure that the equipment and facilities are safe and appropriate for the players' ages and abilities.
11. I will lead by example and demonstrate respect.
12. I will ensure to receive appropriate training, regularly enhance my coaching abilities, and participate in any available clinics.
13. I will work in cooperation with officials for the benefit of the game;
14. I will comply with all regulations and rules established by the governing bodies.
Importantly I will share with the team the importance of the OWHA Harassment, Abuse, Bullying and Misconduct Policy and the OWHA Code of Conduct.
15. When issues arise with parents/guardians during a game, practice, or in any other related situations, I will pursue the disciplinary action outlined under the Issue Resolution process on the CGHA website.

I have read and will abide by the above contract.
